Remember a Local – Name a Place campaign

Council is supporting Geographic Naming Victoria's (GNV) Remember a Local – Name a Place campaign, which aims to help us top up our name bank with commemorative naming ideas from the community.

This is your chance to nominate someone who has made a significant contribution to our region. Once approved by GNV, your nomination will be considered for a new place name in our region.

The campaign also aims to honour individuals from under-represented groups including women, First Nations and multicultural communities.

Anyone who has left a lasting legacy can be nominated. They may be known for community and volunteer work, healthcare, science, architecture and building, sport, arts, public or military service.

Learn more and complete the nomination process, at engage.vic.gov.au/name-a-place

Nominations close
